Spring Recruitment Fair is next Tuesday, January 15th, from 7:30-8:30. The prospective rushees will meet in the Memorial Hall Ballroom at 7:30, while fraternities are encouraged to set up an informational table at the Tate Reception Hall by 7:50. If your fraternity chooses to set up a table, please refrain from using unbecoming/illicit images such as alcohol, drugs, or anything sexually explicit. Also, bid card signing day is Sunday, January 20th, at 6:30 PM. If you have already had kids accept bids, please inform them of this, and also make sure they are registered on IFC’s website.

VP of Judicial & Risk Management JD DeYonker:

Please email JD the dates for your fraternity’s spring parties at johndeyonker@gmail.com. Failure to do so would be ill-advised. Also, please mark down on your calendars that a liability seminar for your respective presidents, new member educators, and social chairs is tentatively scheduled for Wednesday, February 20th; again, failure to attend would be ill-advised.

VP of Public Relations Matt Steininger:

New issue of The Parthenon should be coming out sometime this week, please talk to Matt if you are interested in having an article included. Please email him at mcstein@uga.edu. IFC Scholarships will be distributed in early February. Also, please make sure to like the UGA IFC page on Facebook as well as follow us on Twitter @UGA_IFC. We’ll probably follow you back.

Secretary/Treasurer Michael Griffin:

Attendance at this meeting was 25/26 so well done to the 25 that showed up and to the one that didn’t, hopefully you had a decent excuse. Just a heads up, for this semester if your chapter has two absences from the Bi-Weekly General Body Meeting, it will result in a $100 fine, with every subsequent miss as an additional $100 fine. Also, there is a President’s Training Dinner Wednesday, January 9th, from 6:30 to 7:15 in Tate Room 481. Every President must attend, and failure to do so will result in a $250 fine. Last bit of business, dues will be distributed on February 5th, and collected by February 19th, so get your dues in for the greater good.
President William Costabile:

Grade Reports are coming out soon, so if you have any urgent grade changes needed, please come by the Greek Life Office ASAP and talk to Michael soon. We understand there have been some issues regarding a certain group of sophomores in a certain Terry class that may require grade changes, so please let us know as soon as you find out any new grades.

Greek Life Graduate Assistant Patrick Richardson:

Plans of Accountability are due by January 31st, and will be given out at our next General Body Meeting, scheduled for Tuesday, January 22nd. Please contact Patrick about this; you can email him at patrich@uga.edu.
